

NJORD Latvia: Eduards Vaisla joins NJORD Latvia litigation team

We are happy to announce that attorney-at-law Eduards Vaisla has joined NJORD Latvia as a senior associate.

Eduards is the latest and extremely valuable addition to our litigation team. He has over 15 years of extensive experience in the area of civil, administrative and criminal litigation, having represented clients in courts of all levels. Several cases headed by him have influenced case law.

Eduards effectively manages and resolves conflicts, helping clients to find solutions to the most complex situations. No matter what kind of conflict clients are facing, Eduards knows what methods of dispute resolution to use in order to develop a tailor-made strategy for every case.

Welcome!

NJORD Latvia has a strong litigation practice covering various industries, but in particular IP, shipping, transport and insurance. With addition of Eduards Vaisla we now offer full litigation service covering civil, administrative and criminal law (especially in proceedings regarding criminally acquired property, money-laundering and white collar crimes). We are frequently recommended and hired exclusively as litigation specialists
