

NJORD partners Katrin Sarap and Triinu Hiob have great reviews in Chambers & Partners Europe 2020 guide

Chambers & Partners has once again given high ratings to NJORD's employment department, ranking them in Band 2.

Katrin Sarap has been acknowledged for her work on regulatory mandates, due diligence, and day-to-day employment assistance. She also assists employers with labour law disputes.

Triinu Hiob has been recognized for her work on both regulatory matters and litigation connected to employment. Clients highlight her as "always friendly and responsive."

The team is known for handling a wide range of contentious and non-contentious matters, including employment terminations and regulatory compliance, including data protection. Also offers day-to-day employment advice. Notable for advising both employers and employees from the public and private sectors.

"They are fast, informative and always available," a client says.

Last year's highlight was representing Kim Johansen Transport in immigration matters related to hiring employees from third countries.
