PROFILE

Charlotte Snorre Beck is a specialist lawyer in family and succession law. Charlotte primarily advises on divorces and division of property, the creation of prenuptial agreements, wills, springing powers of attorney, and the administration of estates and advice on burial. In addition to appearing before the ordinary courts, Charlotte has experience in appearing before, among other places, The Agency of Family Law, The family court, and probate court.

In addition to her work as a lawyer, Charlotte is also an external lecturer at the Department of Law at Aarhus University, where she teaches family and succession law. This gives Charlotte a good experience communicating the law, which is essential to Charlotte when she provides advice. She strives to make the law understandable and communicate with the clients at eye level. Charlotte is forthright and always gives an honest assessment of a case, and she takes pride in matching expectations, ensuring that you always know what you are getting with Charlotte.
