PROFILE

Karl-Enrik holds a Master's degree in Law from the University of Tartu and serves as an Associate at NJORD Law Firm.

He has achieved outstanding results in moot court competitions. In 2022, Karl-Enrik won the Estonian Moot Court Competition and in 2023 he was part of the Estonian team representing the country at the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Law Moot court competition. In 2024, he won third place in Europe with the University of Tartu team at the Telders International Law Moot Court Competition. In 2025, Karl-Enrik participated again in the Willem C. Vis Moot, where law students from the University of Tartu made history by being among the top 32 universities in the world out of nearly 400 participating universities for the first time in history.

Karl-Enrik has been a long-time member of the Estonian Debating Society and has participated in several tournaments as both a judge and a debater. At NJORD, Karl-Enrik is committed to dispute resolution.
