PROFILE

Morten Stausholm is part of NJORD's real estate team. Over the past 20 years, he has advised companies and private individuals on the purchase and sale of real estate, commercial lease law, residential tenancy law and within association law. In addition, Morten works with insolvency and restructuring. He has been a trustee in a large number of bankruptcy estates and has experience in dealing with distressed companies – both on the creditor and debtor side. Morten has also conducted a large number of litigation and arbitration cases. Finally, he advises on general commercial law matters and issues.

Morten Stausholm has a solution-oriented approach to the legal profession and is able to create solutions in even extremely conflict-filled situations.
